A Washington Duke Genealogy

as it pertains to Duke University

Mary Caroline Clinton (1825-1847) m. 1842 <

Washington Duke (1820-1905) Statue at entrance to East Campus. m. 1852 >

Artelia Roney (1829-1858) Her sister, Anne, is namesake of the fountain in Duke Gardens.

Sidney Taylor Duke (1844-1858)

Brodie Leonidas Duke (1846-1919)

Mary Elizabeth Duke (1853-1893) m. Robert Edwin Lyon

Benjamin Newton Duke (1855-1929) B.N. Duke Memorial Organ B.N. Duke Scholarship Trustee, 1889-1929. Statue on East m. Sarah Pearson Angier (1856-1936) Sarah P. Duke Gardens, 1934

James Buchanan Duke (1856-1925) Gave library building, 1903 Founded Duke Endowment 1924 Trustee, 1918-1925. Statue on West m. Nanaline Holt Inman Medical Sciences Building, 1968

Mary Lyon m. James Edward Stagg Stagg Pavilion near "The Sower" on East Campus, 1902

Benjamin

George

Bertha

Edwin

George Washington Duke (died in infancy)

Angier Buchanan Duke m. Cordelia Drexel Biddle (1884-1923) Trinity, '05. Trustee, 1912-1923 A.B. Duke Scholarships, 1925

Mary Lillian Duke m. Anthony Joseph Drexel Biddle (1887-1960) Trinity, '07 Music Building, 1974 (1896-1961) Lectureship in International Studies

Doris Duke (1912-1993) $2M for AIDS research, 1993. $10.5M by will, 1995. Charitable Foundation's first grants, 1997

Angier Biddle Duke m. Robin Lynn "Ambassador" (1915-1995)

Anthony Drexel Duke m. Lourdes Alcebo "Tony" (1918- 2014) "Luly" Trustee, 1976-1989

Mary Duke Biddle (1920-2012) Duke '39 Trustee, 1961-1981 Chair, The Duke Endowment, 1982-2001 Semans Trent Center m. Josiah Charles Trent, M.D. (1914-1948) Duke, '34 Trent Drive, Trent Hall Trent Collection

m. James Hustead Semans, M.D. (1910-2005) Professor emeritus, DUMC

Nicholas Benjamin Duke Biddle (1921-2004) m. Elena Thiebaut

Notes: This is not intended to be a complete genealogy. The date following the name of a building, statue, etc. is the date of establishment, naming or dedication.
` The "m." means "married".

Duke University Archives

Revised 9/14/2015