Terms of agreement governing personal use*

1. Duke University will provide copies only for official University use or for use in the research or private study of the applicant. The copies may not be made for or donated to other repositories.
2. The material being copied is the sole and exclusive property of Duke University and may not be reproduced in any fashion or used for any purpose other than University use or private scholarship without the express written consent of Duke University.
3. The applicant agrees to give proper acknowledgement to "Duke University Archives" and agrees to secure permission in advance to publish, broadcast, or disseminate any item, in whole or in part, from its collections beyond the fair and educational use provisions allowed under U.S. Copyright Law.
4. Duke University assumes no responsibility for infringement of property rights or copyright.
5. Copies are provided on an "as is" basis. Every effort is made to ensure accurate reproduction of the original, but there is no guarantee that the material as reproduced will be suitable for your purpose. We do not correct imperfections in the original. Reproductions include a credit line.

Please make copies of the material described herein. I understand and agree that in accepting this service I am bound by the terms of agreement above.

FAIR USE NOTICE WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

* The Duke University Archives will make selected archival material available for publication on a non-exclusive basis. A different form is used to order material for publication. "Publication" is understood to encompass film, television, or radio broadcast, internet posting, and distribution in paper, audio, video, and/or electronic form.
