OUR STORIES, YOUR LEGACY:
A DIALOGUE WITH SNCC VETERANS

Charlie Cobb
Maria Varela
Judy Richardson

Please join us for this conversation with three veterans of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) as they discuss their work as activists and reflect on how telling the story of the Movement has evolved over time. Charlie Cobb (journalism), Judy Richardson (film), and Maria Varela (photography) will highlight how SNCC taught them the importance of capturing experiences in the moment. The panel will also discuss their current efforts towards story-telling SNCC’s history using archival material and comment on ways that modern activists can document their own work.
