

Y. W. C. A. Conference

THE SECOND

WORKER-STUDENT CONFERENCE

130-39

DURHAM, N.C.
NOVEMBER 5-6
1938
INTERRACIAL

SCHEDULE

Saturday

2:30-5:00

Leo Huberman begins the conference meetings with a discussion of social and economic forces at work affecting lives of students & workers.

Saturday

5:00-6:30

Free time - renew acquaintances, find "lodgings," etc.

Saturday

6:30-7:30

Dinner at Algonquin Club for all delegates who wish to attend.

Saturday

7:30-9:00

Labor songs and skits - many from the North Carolina labor front

Saturday

9:00

Adjourn - good night's sleep so we can get an early start Sunday morning.

Sunday

9:00-1:00

meeting at Washing Duke Hotel - (please be prompt!) - Leo Huberman continues the discussions, emphasizing techniques and strategies for working in N.C. on our problems as students and workers.

Sunday

1:00

Adjournment - delegates eat lunch where they like.

Note: Be sure to look at display of material Sunday morning.

Dr. Huberman: Taught at Southern Summer School for Workers in 1938. Now chairman of social science department at New College, Columbia U.