

DUKE DELEGATES
ATTEND STUDENT
MEET IN FLORIDA

Women's Intercollegiate Association Holds Conference

IS THREE DAY SESSION

Louisa Hooker and Martha Howie Represent Duke Woman's College Association

The Women's Intercollegiate Association, for student governments held its twenty-fifth annual convention at the Florida State College for Women, at Tallahassee, from November 9 to 12. Louisa Hooker, president from the Woman's College, and Martha Howie, vice-president, were the delegates from Duke.

The colleges and universities sent to the Mississippi were all well represented. Delegates were chiefly from the North and Middle West; there were a large number from New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, N. C., W. Va. and Duke were the two North Carolina schools represented.

On November 10 the assembly opened with a speech on "Character Development in Self-Government," by Miss Aida Dreyfus, Assistant Dean of Women at the Florida State College.

On Friday, November 11, Dr. Edward Conroy, president of the Florida State College, presided over the opening of the convention. He spoke on "Student Government." Miss Kathryn T. Abbey, head of the history department of the Florida State College, presided over the "Year After College."

Dr. Evelyn Newman was the speaker at a formal banquet given on Friday night. The banquet was given in honor of the convention. The program was of a woman's orientation was conducted by Catherine Whaley of Carnegie Tech; Louise Lenard of the Western State College; and Mrs. Margaret Wheeler of N. C. C. W. College. Hooker led the meeting on dormitory government.

There was a general discussion of fraternities and of the honor system. The officers of the association are: President, Lucy Polk, Florida State College; Vice-President, Martha Howie, Duke; Treasurer, Mildred Alexander, Westminster College at the University of Richmond; Secretary, Mildred Brent, N. C. W. College.

Graduate School Grows
As First Decade Passes

Enrollment Increases Seven-Fold Since 1922; Only Thirty Per Cent of Students Claim Residences in North Carolina

Recently a study has been made in the Graduate School office of some of the facts regarding the growth of graduate instruction in Duke University during the past ten years. In 1922-23 the Graduate School had not yet been organized. The number of students registered for graduate work under the supervision of the Committee on Graduate Instruction was only 30. Of these 29 came from North Carolina and the only out-of-the-state was a young woman from Florida. There were 15 men and 15 women enrolled. Degree holders from 10 colleges or universities were included.

As compared with the academic year 1922-23 there were registered for the Graduate School 82 students in the first semester of the academic year 1932-33 next September. The number registered from North Carolina is 68 and the total number of registrants from 31 other states is 150. States other than North Carolina which have 5 or more students registered are South Carolina, Virginia, 11; Pennsylvania, 16; Georgia, 13; Tennessee, 14; New York, 7; Mississippi, 7; Massachusetts, 6. That approximately 70 per cent of the students in the Graduate School during the present academic year from states other than North Carolina. The number of men registered is 108 and the number of women is 66. That figure that 80 per cent of the students in the Graduate School already have the Master's degree indicates that a large proportion of the registration is for second and third years. One of the interesting facts in the ten years' growth of the Graduate School is the extent to which students are now coming to Duke from other colleges and universities in the United States. During the present semester there are in attendance degree holders from 127 different colleges and universities. Though most of these students come from the states east of the Mississippi River, there are some represented in the far west and on the Pacific coast. The number of states and the number of colleges and universities represented make the Graduate School from a student body a group of truly national character.

In 1923 ten students received the degree of Master of Arts. At the last commencement, 82 students received the degree of Master of Arts and 8 students received the degree of Master of Education. In the last ten years the Graduate School has conferred the degree of Master of Arts on 468 persons, the degree of Master of Education on 236 persons and the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1928. During the five years ended at commencement 1932 the Ph. D. degree was conferred upon 107 students. This degree has been conferred by years as follows: 1928, 21; 1929, 5; 1930, 8; 1931, 17.

The deflucio organization to encourage and supervise the conduct of graduate work in Duke University dates from September, 1929. Its first president, Peve year was

(Continued on page four)

LARGEST PEP MEETING WILL START MEETING
ADVANCE TO CAROLINA

Plans were completed yesterday for a mammoth pep meeting to be staged by the entire student body next Friday evening in preparation for the most important game on the Duke schedule, that with Carolina. The meeting will be composed of three different parts to be held in three different places. At seven o'clock students will assemble in front of the clock tower for a short pep meeting which will start the evening of celebration. The band will be there with music to enhance the proceedings.

After this meeting is concluded, there will be a session of cheering in order to allow students to get to the East campus where the second part of the meeting will begin. There will be no parade between the two campuses, in order that students will have rides can take advantage of them. From the East campus there will be a parade down to the Carolina theatre where the students will enter and march across the stage. After this they will march back up Main street to the East campus where the third part of the celebration will take place.

This part consists of a pep meeting to be held in front of East Duke. No students will be allowed to go into the girls' quadrangle for the purpose of having a pep meeting such as was held at the pep meeting before the Maryville students will enter and march across the stage. After this they will march back up Main street to the East campus where the third part of the celebration will take place.

This pep meeting will be in many respects similar to the one held here at the Maryland game. That meeting was the largest staged by the University, and Student President Horne stated that an attempt will be made to make the one to be held this coming Friday night still larger.

ASSEMBLY SPEAKER

Charles Northcott, brother of James Northcott, who crashed his car into a tax cab driving on Chase street. The Duke men were driving to the West campus. The impact caused the taxi to slide to the side of the road, but neither it drove. R. L. Council, Mrs. Mrs. Lela Northcott, who was in the car, and the coupe stayed on the road, but the collision caused its motor to be driven under the back seat. The taxi was not damaged seriously.

According to police accounts of the collision, the Northcott car crashed into a tax cab driving on Chase street. The Duke men were driving to the West campus. The impact caused the taxi to slide to the side of the road, but neither it drove. R. L. Council, Mrs. Mrs. Lela Northcott, who was in the car, and the coupe stayed on the road, but the collision caused its motor to be driven under the back seat. The taxi was not damaged seriously.

SECRETARY CHOSEN

Sue Powell of Gnomonia was elected secretary of the sophomore class at a meeting held Monday, November 14. The members of Gnomonia, who resigned from office. Other candidates for the position, chosen by the nomination committee and nominated from the floor, were: Polly Chase, Peggy Parker, and Beatrice Wynn.

DR. MALCOLM McDERMOTT, SPEAKER AT THURSDAY EVENING ADDRESS

Dr. Malcolm McDermott, whose pre-Armistice celebration address Thursday aroused a wide attention from the congested undergraduates.

Initial Performance of Duke Players A Success

Cast Presumably "The Romantic Young Lady" Proves Popular

Mrs. Lucas carried through the popular melodrama and strobomorphism of the romantic play with no particular flair. Her stage presence was at all times pleasing. Playwrights Miss Lucas was Mrs. A. T. West, who carried out the role of a slightly amused novelist, with deflection. Mrs. West seemed sure of himself during the play, and it was a foregone conclusion after he had once become entangled with the leading lady, that he could win her heart with no exception any time she so desired.

In the minor roles, those of Donna Barreza de Castellanos, grandmother of the majority of the other players, and Maria Pepa, her sarcastic servant, were the most important. Miss Marion Shaker, in the first of these parts, had at all times the sympathy of the audience, as much as Miss Anita Knox, as the servant, held its amusement. Donna Barreza typified the older generation, with a kindly tolerance and understanding of the temper of the children about her, while that of the girl at once went to the man whom she first met in such a romantic manner. The force and entertainment of the play had to be in the middle of the act.

COMING ATTRACTION

Part of the ballet of the Glick-Sander, Felicia Sorel concert series, which will appear in Page auditorium as a feature of Duke company which

DUKE MEN ARE IN COLLISION, HURT

Employees and Students Injured in Crash Monday Afternoon; Two in Hospital

Reports received last night indicated that the condition of Wade Davis, Duke university employee, who was seriously injured at Duke hospital, and are expected to remain there some days more before being released. Davis has a slight concussion of the brain and a fractured skull. The taxi was not damaged seriously.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott's proposition dwelt for a short while on the great illusion of the American people on the signing of the Armistice to the summer of 1918, when it was believed that the war which was to end war. This deception was soon dispelled, he said. In discussing the probability of an armistice, the speaker said that he had come to regard the armistice in the light of its literal meaning—a temporary cessation of hostilities. "The events of the past decade seem to coincide with this belief," he asserted.

In conclusion, he stated that there were two things which he had not finished, the meeting took on its happier, informal aspects as the members, their friends and guests, presented novel suggestions for hikes, outdoor rages, freestyle entertainment, and various German presentations. The program department staff will lead in the singing of German songs. Another initiation will be on Wednesday, November 15, at 8 o'clock. The program department staff will lead in the singing of German songs.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

COCHRAN WILL BE
FEATURE SPEAKER
IN LEGAL MEETING

Virginia Judge Will Address Duke Bar Association Friday Evening

VISITOR IS CIVIC LEADER

Topic of Discussion Will Be Juvenile and Domestic Relations

Featured by an address on the juvenile and domestic relations court of Norfolk, Va., by Judge Cochran of the Duke Bar association will be held at 7:30 Friday evening in the Court room of the law building. The program for the occasion has been arranged by the local section of the American Law and Criminology, which Chasman Hanes, of Pine Hall, is chairman. Judge Cochran will be introduced by Dean Justin Miller. The Duke Bar association will be organized by Judge Cochran. At that time the various sections outlined their work for the year. Throughout the remainder of the schedule, at each monthly meeting, a member of the American Law and Criminology will be invited to give reports.

The section report Friday night will be on Juvenile and Domestic Relations in the United States. In connection with this topic Raymond K. Perkins, Earl E. Grinn, and Paul H. Sanders will give short talks.

Judge Herbert G. Cochran was born in Delaware. His undergraduate college work was at Dickinson College. He took his law degree at the University of Virginia, and was also a Rhodes scholar, spending several years at Oxford. Since that time Judge Cochran has built up an admirable record in his chosen field of the settling of juvenile and domestic relations in the United States. He is now the vice-president of the National Probation association, which office Dean Miller now holds. He has been president of the Virginia Bar Association, the National Probation association, and has directed the Norfolk Title Office since 1929. The visiting speaker is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Delta Phi.

DUKE LAW SCHOOL PROFESSOR TALKS TO STUDENT BODY

Dr. Malcolm McDermott Speaks in Assembly Thursday For Pre-Armistice Celebration

ASKS FOR WORLD PEACE

Says Hope For Future in Hands of Internationally-Minded College Students

"The hope for future world peace lies in the internationally-minded college students who are attending college today," said Dr. McDermott, who spoke to the student body at the University of Virginia, in an address before the undergraduate assembly on last Thursday morning. Dr. McDermott, who has been president of the Virginia Bar Association, the National Probation association, and has directed the Norfolk Title Office since 1929. The visiting speaker is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Delta Phi.

The Friday meeting of the association drew a crowd of the outstanding lawyers and social workers of the state. A comprehensive summary of the section under immediate investigation is to be published in the near future.

DELTA PHI ALPHA HOLDS INITIATION

President Lundgren Explains Purpose of Club; Informal Discussion Is Held

Delta Phi Alpha, honorary German society, cleared its most difficult barrier by holding its initiation on November 8, when, in an attempt to dispense with formalities and business, the members were formally inducted into membership. President Howard Lundgren, officiating, attempted to enlighten members with the real purpose of the club, explaining that it after all was created to further interest in a German language and culture as the means to understand our Teutonic neighbors. The program department staff will lead in the singing of German songs.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

CO-ED PRESIDENT

Discussion groups composed of the student delegates were held during the convention. The program was of a woman's orientation was conducted by Catherine Whaley of Carnegie Tech; Louise Lenard of the Western State College; and Mrs. Margaret Wheeler of N. C. W. College. Hooker led the meeting on dormitory government.

There was a general discussion of fraternities and of the honor system. The officers of the association are: President, Lucy Polk, Florida State College; Vice-President, Martha Howie, Duke; Treasurer, Mildred Alexander, Westminster College at the University of Richmond; Secretary, Mildred Brent, N. C. W. College.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

CAMPUS BULLETINS

THROUPTS FOR SECOND DUKE PLAYERS production, which will be a bill of fare of plays by Duke authors, will be held at 8:30 tomorrow evening in the Little Theatre, East campus.

PHOOTS OF ALL individual Character pictures are now in the office, on Union building. Photographer will return from November 30 to December 3 to take final prints.

DUKE PLAYERS MEETING at 7:30 tomorrow evening in the Little Theatre. Important measures will be taken up.

VARSITY WRESTLING practice was started last Monday. All prospective grapplers are to report to Coach Warren at one. Freshman practice will also begin.

LIMITED NUMBER of tickets for the B. O. S. dance have been placed on the market. Only a few seats remain. Members of the groups for seventy-five cents. The dance will be given November 23 in the Union Ball room. Music by the Duke Orchestra.

"ANOTHER LANGUAGE," a play by Rose Franklin, will be read by A. T. West, at 8:30 tomorrow evening in the Little Theatre, East campus.

SEASON TICKETS for Duke Concerts must be bought this week. Single tickets for the Kenyon concert will go on sale Monday.

Quartet Sings The quartet of the Woman's college Glee club sang at an Armistice Day banquet held at the Y. W. C. A. hall in Durham. Members of the quartet are: Della Tucker, Mildred Brent, Dorothy Newsum, second soprano; Tempus, first alto; and Denali Langston, second soprano. Elaine Chiles accompanied the group.

CONCERT SERIES SEASON TICKETS SELLS RAPIDLY

Over 500 Seats Now Engaged For Five Concerts During First Semester

KENYON IS FIRST ARTIST

Duke Series Corresponds Exactly to That of Penn Athletic Club

Over 500 season tickets have already been sold for the Duke Concert series of 1932-33, opening auspiciously with the 1929-30, Opus Kenyon, November 14, according to A. T. West, Barnes, the comparatively large advance sale of tickets shows the enthusiastic approval of Mrs. Kenyon's performance and the anticipation of this season's extraordinary program of recitals.

The complete Duke series is exactly similar to that of the Penn Athletic club this year. Many of the artists are coming to Duke directly from this college. Mrs. Kenyon's performance will consist of a number of songs and costume portrayals. She appeared with Sam Massey, violinist, last year and was widely applauded by a large audience. At that time she rendered a number of songs and costume portrayals.

Mrs. Kenyon's success in the musical world has been a complete surprise to Hollywood and many music critics. The complete Duke series is exactly similar to that of the Penn Athletic club this year. Many of the artists are coming to Duke directly from this college. Mrs. Kenyon's performance will consist of a number of songs and costume portrayals. She appeared with Sam Massey, violinist, last year and was widely applauded by a large audience.

DUKE LEGAL AID CLINIC HELPS JUVENILE JUDGE

Speaking on the federal juvenile effort, Judge Carl E. Hyatt, continued his tour of inspection in concluding his day at Washington, D. C., addressed the members of the Duke Legal Aid clinic last Monday afternoon. His talk also dealt with the juvenile system.

Judge Hyatt was formerly connected with this work in Asheville where he had a long and distinguished career in the county juvenile court. His later work in Washington gave him added opportunities for studying and comparing procedure work in all parts of the United States.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

Dr. McDermott, in making a strong plea that the United States enter the world court and the League of Nations, said that America can no longer be isolated from the family of nations. The depression is called by the present administration as something not negotiable, but it is a world-wide business upheaval, and, if this be true, it goes to prove that our welfare is inseparably connected with that of the rest of the world, and that the United States is an integral part of the family of nations," he declared.

COCHRAN WILL BE
FEATURE SPEAKER
IN LEGAL MEETING

Virginia Judge Will Address Duke Bar Association Friday Evening

VISITOR IS CIVIC LEADER

Topic of Discussion Will Be Juvenile and Domestic Relations

BEAVEN TALKS ON GOD IN DAILY LIFE IN CHAPEL SUNDAY

Rochester Divinity School Head Encourages Young People in Interesting Talk

"GOD CARES FOR MAN"

Says Deity Interested in People; Looks Down to Help Them in Life

Dr. A. W. Beaven, president of Rochester divinity school, told Rochester, N. Y., gave the message at the church service in the Chapel this past Sunday morning. He said that God cares for, loves, and looks down on individuals in an interested way just as the Christian look up, love, and believe in God. It is easy for people to believe that there must be some supreme force behind the universe today more so than in former times, people find it difficult to realize that this force can be interested in such an infinitely small thing as human being. The lack of faith spoken in the last statement, the speaker continued, is indicative of a "narrow man age" mind. We believe that gravitation works for small things as well as great, yet not God's love for a person, as small a part of the universe as he may be.

In more detail the gist of the Rochester divinity school's president is as follows: As we are interested in and reach up to God for help, so God is interested in us, cares for, and reaches down to help us.

The discoveries and laws of science seem to me to make a god of some kind more sensible and necessary than ever. The ultimate as it was in past years. The world is on the search for the afflicted.

Lately science has not been considered the ultimate as it was in past years. The world is on the search for the afflicted.

Thus, though it is easier today to believe in a supreme force that controls the world, sometimes it is harder to believe that this is a personal force, and that God cares for us individually.

With the increasing complexity of the world, the nearness of God's presence is feeling. The young folks of this day may easily be lost in the vastness and eternity of it, and find it hard to understand that there can be a deity who materially, and at the end of the play gave her role a certain dignity and importance. She was given the best lines of the play.

INITIAL PERFORMANCE OF DUKE PLAYERS A SUCCESS

(Continued from Page One)

Miss Knox played the role of the servant with complacency and ease. Since she had the only comic or mildly amusing part in the play it was not difficult for her to gain considerable attention from the audience. Miss Knox gave a far better performance when she was not speaking her lines, for her use of her hands was talented, and her voice, while purposely made whining, grew tiresome.

The remainder of the actors did creditably well, but their roles were unimportant. The play was mild in all its phases: humor, satire, characterizations. Its theme was probably of far more importance than it was first presented than at present. How carefully "A Roman's Young Lady" interpreted the Latin temperment, this writer simply has no idea. But the whole thing was well attended.

BLUE DEVILS LOSE TO N. C.

STATE IN FOOTBALL UPSIDE

(Continued from page three)

coated, came in to try the place-licked but failed.

The remainder of the game consisted of a number of threats by the home team. State tried to hold goal from the thirty yard line in the fourth period, but the ball was both low and wide. The expected punting duel between Boushler and Lacey for Duke and Greensboro Tech materialized with a vengeance. All three boys did unusually fine work, and the final statistics called it a draw.

Lacey got one of in the final quarter that traveled seventy yards from the line of scrimmage and his contribution to the Devils' offense for the afternoon.

DISCUSSIONS ARE GIVEN TO FURTHER ANTI-WAR FEELING

Jensen Discredits Economic and Biological Necessity For War

OPEN FORUM CONDUCTED

Cohen Not Hopeful For Immediate Permanent Elimination of War Evils

A meeting of students appointed by war successfully carried to its interesting end last Friday afternoon when the students in attendance had the pleasure of hearing Dr. H. E. Jensen, Professor of Sociology and a member of the National Congress of Students for the Prevention of War, and Mr. Joseph Cohen, a member of the National Students League. After the address Dr. H. E. Jensen led an open-forum discussion.

Dr. Jensen spoke on "The Economic and Biological Necessity of War." In the course of his speech, Dr. Jensen discredited the theories that war is both economically and biologically necessary. He showed that war is only one phase of a series of conflicts and that this particular form of conflict probably could be done away with by effecting a new cultural attitude. Dr. Jensen also showed that over-populated countries are not the principal ones which cause war.

Mr. Cohen spoke on "War and the Student." He showed that while war is not inevitable in every system of society, it is inevitable in a society which is organized so that production is for profit rather than for use. He asserted and reasserted that while attempts to eliminate war by striking at the surface termination of war, the desired result will never be obtained until the cause of war is exposed, and this, he believes, will be exposed when the present economic order is revised.

After the formal address Dr. H. E. Jensen Smith of the school of religion officiated in an open forum discussion in which much interest and enthusiasm were shown and a surprising down of this power are necessary, however. Through Jesus, God does step down to deal with broken hearts and help them. He did it to Paul and others in Biblical times, and he can do it just as well now.

is making an ardent request to all students who are conscientiously against war, whatever their other sentiments may be. Any students interested may secure information from Herman Walker, Jr.

Classified Ads

LOST, ONE WATERPROOF COVERTING. Probably in parking space back of Jones Z and AA. Person R-124.

FOR SALE: A SPALDING MERCURY tennis racket, practically new. See Stillman, AA-302.

LOST, BLACK SCHEAFFER FOUNTAIN pen. Please return to H-401.

LOST OR BORROWED: GREEN Parker pen. Please return to G-468. Reward.

LOVELY WAVES, EXCELLENT material, peppy operators. Shampoo and fingerwave, 50c. American Beauty Shoppe opposite postoffice, on Corcoran street.

FOR SALE: CONN E-FLAT ALTO Sax and case—$25.00. See Venning, 104-EE.

LOST: PHI DELTA THETA Fraternity pin. Reward if returned to R. C. Herbert, 202-C.

LOST OR BORROWED: BLACK Schaeffer fountain pen. Return to G-468.

MANY DENOMINATIONS IN SCHOOL OF RELIGION

Dr. P. N. Garber, registrar of the university school of religion, has announced that 143 students, two of whom are women, have registered for the fall semester. Coming from forty-two colleges and universities, all of the student are following courses for the degree of bachelor of divinity. Six denominations are represented: Methodist, Baptist, Christian, Methodist Protestant, Presbyterian, and Disciples of Christ. 129 are Christians, however.

GRADUATE SCHOOL GROWS AS FIRST DECADE PASSES

(Continued from Page One)

appointed a Committee on Graduate Instruction headed by Professor W. H. Glason to deal with the problems involved in the promotion and administration of graduate work. This committee continued in charge of graduate work for ten years. After Trinity college was expanded into Duke university, a Graduate School was organized in 1926 and placed in charge of a Dean and Council on Graduate Instruction. The progress that has been made since the Graduate School was organized is clearly shown by the foregoing statistics.

CONCERT SERIES SEASON TICKETS SELLING RAPIDLY

(Continued from Page One)

Following Miss Kenyon there will be four artistic programs which will bring to the university some very talented and nationally known artists. Clare Claiborn, the Belgian coloratura soprano who also thrilled a Duke audience last year, will return, supported by Andre D'Arco known as "The Caruso of Belgium," a young tenor who has sung with Miss Claiborn in the Brussels operas for several years. Both solos and duets will be rendered. The first program after the Christmas holidays will be given by the sensational Gladys-Sandor and Felicia Seel and their ballet. This company gave more than 150 performances last year in New York. Gladys-Sandor is the director of Earl Carroll's famous "Yankees".

The largest group of artists in the series is the National woman's symphony orchestra, headed by Ethel Legnani, conductor and soloist. The company is composed of 90 selected women musicians. This standardized symphony orchestra has received many complimentary notices from critics. Walter Gieseking, celebrated pianist, who will probably be the outstanding performer, will conclude the Duke series with his engagement on February 15.

New Smart Hats for the Fall and Winter Season

Hodshon Hats $3.50
Knapp Felt $5.00 and $7.50

Full and complete stock carried, including snap and roll brims, high and low crown, and all the fall colors.

Do not hesitate any longer to get the hat you have been looking for

MILLER BISHOP COMPANY

"Where College Men Meet" North Corcoran Street Durham, N. C.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

THE SEA WOLF
"Nature in the Raw" as portrayed by the noted artist, N. C. Werh... inspired by the infamous Captain Kidd's fierce ride on the gold-laden Spanish galleons (1696), which made him the scourge of the Spanish Main. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild" — and you tobaccoists have no place in cigarettes.

Which Duke Player Will Win the Lucky Swantex Shirt...?

We are displaying a Swantex broadcloth shirt in our window which has been signed by all members and coaching staff of the Duke football team. This shirt will be presented to the Duke player making the first tackle in the Carolina game next Saturday.

Swantex Broadcloth SHIRTS

$1.35

Three for $4

We have exclusive agency for these famous shirts. Blue, gray, tan, green and white. Beautifully tailored and fully guaranteed. Students, faculty members and hundreds of Durham men have selected this shirt as the best bet any time.

Bessler is also playing his last game against the undefeated. We wish him the best of luck.

MASON

Everyone will be sorry to see Captain Mason play his last game against Carolina next Saturday.

WOOL TIES

Glen patterns of Botany wool—light weight—non-creasible—the smartest thought in neckwear... $1

GLEN PLAIDS

Glen plaid suits are in the spotlight... several new patterns just received.

Glen plaid suits, gray, brown and blue, smart looking, long wearing... $5c

Glen plaid suspenders, Hickok V-Klip model... $1.50

SWEATERS and JACKETS

All wool sleeveless, regular $2 and $3 values—$1.50 an exceptional opportunity, all colors, all sizes

Brushed wool, crew neck, the best sweater value in town. All colors—$1.95

A new suede jacket, warm and serviceable, rich brown color. See this new idea—$3.95

Best quality leather jackets, knit collar and cuffs, Reinforced and sand-colored. We were exceptionally fortunate in securing these jackets at this low price—$5.95

Durham Men's Shop
111 West Main Street

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the purifying of that Lucky Strike benefit process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted" That package of mild Luckies