

Getting to the Rubenstein Library

The David M. Rubenstein Rare Book & Manuscript Library is located on Duke's West Campus, near Duke Chapel. We are the first door in the building.

Parking: The most convenient visitor parking is the Bryan Center. Turn right into the garage just after turning off Science Drive. $2/hour all day. There is also a metered lot just outside of the deck with a 2-hour limit.

Walking: It takes about 8 minutes to walk from the Bryan Center to the Rubenstein Library.

Dining: There are a number of options in the Bryan Center, in addition to a café in Perkins Library. Hours may be limited during summer and holiday breaks.
